BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME OF K. OF C.
WAS FORMALLY DEDICATED
LAST EVENING

HON. CHARLES S. O'CONNOR

HON. MICHAEL J. MURRAY

Inspiring Addresses by Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, Judge Murray and Hon. Charles S. O'Connor of Boston and Others—Entertainment and Buffet Luchon—Members Delighted With New Quarters

After many months of expectant waiting and fond anticipation, the beautiful new home of the Lowell Knights of Columbus in Dutton street was opened and formally dedicated last night in the presence of over 1000 old and new members. The building was thrown open to inspection shortly before 7 o'clock and from that hour until after midnight the enthusiastic members viewed with amazement the almost unbelievable transformation that had taken place in the structure in the course of one short year. That the comfortable and convenient quarters met and will continue to meet with unanimous approbation is, judging by the expressed sentiment of all, assured. It was a highly elated membership which inspected the several rooms last night and voiced its gratification. Old members were made young, it seemed, and young members, younger by the complete changes effected by skilled hands under the direction of the K. of C.'s building committee. The formal exercises were opened about 8:30 o'clock in the spacious and admirably appointed assembly hall, the invited guests and charter members marching to the stage and the deafening plaudits of the gathering. TRUSTEES ESTIMATE $35,360.96 AS COST OF MAINTAINING AUDITORIUM FOR YEAR

The board of trustees of the Memorial Auditorium estimate it will cost $35,360.96 to maintain the building this year, and have presented this figure as their departmental budget. Wages are figured at $17,830.96 and all expenses and supplies at $17,530. To maintain the building for a position of last year—an appropriation therefore being made in July—cost $14,045.51.

The building's operating staff includes a building manager, four watchmen, one laborer, two firemen and three janitresses. In the supply and expense schedule, $1000 is asked for the purchase of new furniture.

The first heartening assurance that spring and summer are somewhere on the trail ahead and that each passing day of slivering cold brings them nearer, is the announcement that the trustees of the Memorial Auditorium have received application from the high school to use the building on June 27 for the graduating exercises of the class of 1923.

TURK LEADER READY FOR WAR

Kemal at Mother's Grave Takes Oath to Defend Liberties of Turkey

Leaves for Angora Amid Such Demonstrations as Usually Take Place on Eve of War

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Interest in the Near East situation, revived by the delicate state of affairs at Lausanne was intensified here today by a Times dispatch from Constantinople reporting the departure of Mustafa Kemal Pasha from Smyrna for Angora amid such demonstrations as usually take place before the outbreak of war. The Turkish Nationalist leader is reported to have visited the grave of his mother where he swore that he would rather die in death than "lose the sovereignty which the Turkish people recovered at the price of blood to be imperilled." Kemal also is said to have taken oath by his mother's soul that he would defend the liberties of Turkey.

TO CALL GREEK CLASS OF 1923 TO COLORS

GENEVA, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Greek minister has notified Greeks of the class of 1923 to hold themselves in readiness for a call to the colors. He said there would be no exceptions.

MASTER REPORTS ON HIGH SCHOOL CASE

The full report of the master, F. Stockwood Hall of Boston, appointed to hear evidence in the injunction case brought by Dennis E. Conners and others against the City of Lowell and the high school building commission, in an effort to restrain the city from making any further payments under the contract for the erection of the new high school building to David H. Walker, contractor, was received today by City Solicitor Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan. The report simply corroborated a previous statement in which the master's finding was against the plaintiffs in the matter of facts, meaning unreasonable delay, or neglect to do a thing or to seek to enforce a right at a proper time. Insistence on the case will be objection to the finding, the case will proceed to hearings on the matter of law before Justice Bradley, who first heard the matter and then appointed Mr. Hall to sit as master. The substance of the master's report is that the plaintiffs, Mr. Conners and others named, waited an unreasonably long time before bringing the restraining action and therefore are guilty of neglect in this respect. Although the master's report is not final and the case is not decided upon it it will have a bearing upon the disposition of the matter by the single Justice. It is believed.

ISSUES WARNING AT DUESSELDORF

Germans "Mistaken to Think Our Patience Has No Limits," Says De Goutte

Will Soon Be Possible to Say Where Mad Policy of Berlin Has Led Germany

State of Siege Throughout the Ruhr Valley Imminent—Proclamation Issued

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—General De Goutte, in a statement to the press at Duesseeldorf today, sounded the warning, according to the Evening News correspondent that "they are mistaken to think our patience has no limits" and added that the allies occupying the Ruhr "will carry out their plans and will break the stubbornness of their adversaries."

At another point, according to the correspondent, he said: "More general sanctions will soon be decided upon; and it will then be possible to say where the mad policy of the Berlin government has led Germany."

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The imminence of a state of siege throughout the Ruhr is indicated in a Duesseeldorf dispatch to the Times, which says that General De Goutte has distributed to the police a proclamation forbidding any civilian activity in the streets between the hours of 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. The maximum penalty afforded by French law—five years imprisonment or a 10,000,000 mark fine—is the penalty for violation of the order, which is to be promulgated shortly.

WHO WAS BITTEN SUNDAY BY DOG?

The board of health is very anxious to learn the name and address of the man who was bitten by a dog in Dutton street, near the plant of the Morris Co., last Sunday morning, and he is asked to communicate at once with Agent Francis J. O'Hare.

The dog was killed by the police after he had bitten the man in question and torn the clothing of another person, and the animal's head has been sent to the state department of conservation for examination. In the event of rabies being found, it is most important and necessary for the local authorities to learn the identity of the person attacked and bitten.

MAIL CARRIERS TO DROP FOOD FOR BIRDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Postmaster General Work has issued orders to rural route mail carriers to distribute grains along their routes for starving birds, when supplies of such bird feed are furnished to them. The order resulted from a request of a state game warden who asked that the carriers be permitted to participate in the benevolent work of furnishing food to birds when the ground is covered with snow.

BORAH RENEWS HIS PROPOSAL

Calls for Internal Economic Conference Called by Pres. Harding

Proposal Expected to Bring Another Storm in the United States Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Senator Borah renewed in the senate today his proposal for an internal economic conference called by President Harding. The conference proposal, which already has been the centre of one Senate storm and is expected to develop another, was submitted this time by the Idaho senator as a separate resolution, which at his own request immediately was laid aside for consideration after pending farm credits legislation is out of the way.

NO ABATEMENT IN MEASLES EPIDEMIC

Not including cases reported today, there have been 195 cases of measles brought to the attention of the board of health this month, at which number 31 have been reported since Saturday, when the total was 164. The epidemic shows no abatement signs, although only two deaths have resulted and most of the cases are confined to children and are not serious or heavy attacks.

The third death of the year, with influenza as a contributory cause, was reported to the health authorities today.

BUDGET AND AUDIT COMMISSION WILL HOLD FIRST PRUNING SESSION TOMORROW

Commission Will Go Over Estimates of All Departments—Mayor Has Asked For Rigid Retrenchment and He Will Attend Meeting Tomorrow—Expected That Commission Will Cut Deep Into Figures Before Submitting Budget to Mayor

The budget and audit commission will begin its 1923 budget deliberations tomorrow, with Mayor John J. Donovan meeting with them. These appropriations sessions were scheduled to get under way today, but Tyler A. Stevens, commission chairman, was unable to meet and asked to have them postponed until tomorrow morning. When the commission begins its work it will have before it estimates from all major departments and practically all appropriations except those included under the head of "fixed charges," which are made up in the auditor's office. Although the school department estimates are not in the auditor's hands at present it is expected they will be tomorrow inasmuch as the school committee meets tonight to discuss and approve them.

WINTER CARNIVAL PLANS

Program of Events Practically Settled, Including Many Novel Features

Members of the park commission and representatives of the Lowell Ad club met last night to discuss plans and a definite program of events for the Winter Carnival to be held at Fort Hill park Thursday and Friday of this week. The result was the following program, although not arranged chronologically as the exact schedule will not be ready before tomorrow.

In addition there will be a motor toboggan relay races, relay snowshoe races, ski races, snow ball fights, "dog team" races, obstacle races, barrel stave races, lugs o' war and ski jumping.

John Kalapotharakos, alias John Michalakos, who recently confessed to killing his wife in this city a year ago, was today in the city hall morning adjudge insane and committed to the hospital for the insane at Bridgewater. Kalapotharakos, 31 years in this country, 1922, he disappeared from this city and nothing was seen or heard of him until he turned up at police headquarters in Ontario, Canada, last November and started the authorities there with an open confession that he had killed his wife in Lowell about a year previous by hitting her with an axe.

The Canadian authorities immediately notified the Lowell police department and Captain David Peirce and Officer Alfred Conroy were detailed to go to Canada for the prisoner. He was brought to Cambridge where he has been confined for the past 37 days. In the meantime, Kalapotharakos is said to have acted in a peculiar manner, laughing without the least provocation and telling amusing stories of himself and others. This morning, word was received from Cambridge that the man was found to be suffering with a mental affliction, diagnosed by examining physicians as insanity.

ANOTHER PROMISE FOR BELVIDERE

Ashes and waste in Belvidere will be collected either late today or early tomorrow morning, said Supt. Harry Doherty of the street department today. The delay in collections in this section of the city is due to natural congestion caused by the abandonment of all ash work during recent storms. For two weeks no ashes were collected, although the regular schedule was picked up last week. Monday, at the end of the week, or when work stopped last Saturday noon, the department was just one day and a half back of its usual schedule. Yesterday, the regular ash division men again started out on the regular weekly program of collection, leaving odds and ends, including Belvidere, for temporary men to finish. This will be completed tomorrow and Belvidere not only will get rid of what ashes now are on hand, but will be honored with a second collection this week, on Saturday, the regular day.

TURKEY AND GREECE SIGN

Two Conventions Growing Out of Lausanne Peace Conference Accepted

One Provides for Return of War Prisoners—Other Exchange of Populations

LAUSANNE, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two conventions growing out of the deliberations of the Lausanne peace conference were signed today between Turkey and Greece. One provides for the mutual return of prisoners of war, and hostages. The other puts into effect the compulsory exchange of populations arranged.

The signatories were Ismet Pasha and Iftiza Nur Bey for Turkey and Mm. Venizelos and Cakmakian for Greece. Col. Plastiras, the Greek revolutionary leader, whose unannounced arrival here has created much speculation, was present in uniform at the brief ceremony. The convention will become effective immediately, irrespective of the fate of the general peace treaty, but the impression is growing that the arrangements for the compulsory exchange of populations may never be carried out, as both Greece and Turkey are likely to decide it will be undesirable.

LECTURE AT THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

The fifth lecture of a series of ten on "Personal Development" was given at the Normal school yesterday by Mr. William E. Riley, instructor of penmanship at the school whose subject was "The Development of Skills Psychologically Considered."

Mr. Weed, principal of the school, in introducing Mr. Riley to the assembly said that he believed the lecture would be one of the most interesting of the series as skill in any line adds to personality and that Mr. Riley's skill was known throughout the state wherever a graduate of the school taught.

Mr. Riley opened his talk with a poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox which he said contained the explanation of his subject:

"One ship sails east, another west

With the self-same winds that blow;
Which decides the way we go?"

The first part of Mr. Riley's lecture was taken up with the subject of skill on machines, in the handling of tools, and the attainment of rhythm between man and tool. In this regard Mr. Riley stated that two of the most puzzling questions in regard to machinery were "What speed shall I use?" and "What feed shall I use?" and that the solving of these questions took upwards of 20 years. Mr. Riley told of several instances where, in testing the efficiency of the worker, it was found that more work was done in the first hour than was done in any other hour during the day. Numerous tests were made by changing the working hours but it was found that the result was practically the same. Finally it was found that by a rest period after every hour and fifteen minutes work the production would be as high every hour as it was the first hour previously. Mr. Riley also illustrated several ways of using a shovel, a saw, and a sledge-hammer so that the maximum amount of work

SANDS SIDEWALKS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Patrolman Bill Keegan is always popular with school children, some of whom are now calling him good-naturally "The Sandman."

The reason why Keegan obtained this childhood storybook cognomen was discovered today, when pedestrians hurrying to work saw the patrolman diligently mending the sidewalks in the vicinity of East Merrimack and High streets, so little children marching to school could navigate the slippery side-hill walks and dangerous curbs and gutters without tumbling and spoiling their natty go-to-school clothes.

The patrolman's thoughtfulness was noted by numerous people in the East Merrimack street neighborhood, notably the occupants of the corner building where the icy slides were left untouched until the patrolman came along and did the owner's job for him.

could be done without tiring the worker as much as huffing on the job would. All through the different lines of work the tool, the man and the job must, for efficient work, be co-ordinated.

Mr. Riley then spoke of the psychology in teaching and asked "What we learn anyway? Some of the oldest psychologists tell us there are two ways, the self-dependent and the learning from a foreign influence." He then listed six methods developing from these two as a basis, first, learning by instinct; second, learning from someone else's experience; third, by an intelligent understanding of a new experience; fourth, by instruction through imitation; fifth, by training others by the impressions with which you are endowed; and sixth, the most important of all, by intelligent teaching.

In regard to learning by intelligent teaching Mr. Riley brought forth the subject with which he is most familiar, the teaching of penmanship. He explained how it was necessary to get the child to control the pen and how the child was called upon to control the muscles, first the large and then the small, until finally he can make the proper movement which spells success in penmanship, all this depending upon intelligent teaching, and by a thorough understanding of the subject by the teacher.

In closing Mr. Riley gave an explanation of the word "Service" embodying all the elements necessary to the attainment of success: "S" stands for sacrifice, in that nothing is attained without something else being given up; "E" for ethics; "R" for religion by which we acknowledge our duty to ourselves, to God and to man; "V" for vision; "I" for industry, without which we cannot gain anything; "C" for charity, that which gives what justice does not demand; and the "S" which surrounds all the others—education.

How to Darken Gray Hair

A Cincinnati Barber Tells How To Make A Remedy for Gray Hair

A well known resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It is a half-pint of water and 1 ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 3 ounces of hair oil. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the meat delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Caused by Troubles Women Often Have—Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Medina, New York.—"I had a great deal of trouble such as women often have, and this affected my nerves. For over two years I suffered this way, then I read in the 'Buffalo Times' about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have taken it with very good results. I am very much better and feel justified in praising the Vegetable Compound to my friends and neighbors who suffer from anything of the kind."—Mrs. Wm. H. Adkins, 311 Erie Road, Medina, N. Y.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and get the best remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup (100 parts of sugar to 100 parts of water) instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, breaks the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

THE COMING OF O'MORE

One of World's Greatest Tenors to Appear at Auditorium Feb. 11

Mr. Arthur Hadley, manager of Collin O'More, one of the world's greatest tenors, arrived in Lowell yesterday to arrange with Mr. John Finnegan, under whose auspices the great singer is to appear at the Memorial Auditorium, Feb. 11, all of the details incident to the concert.

Mr. O'More recently electrified the music lovers of New York city, where he made several appearances at Carnegie hall, and he is scheduled to appear in two concerts at Symphony hall, Boston, within the next few weeks. The great tenor reminds one of John McCormack in many respects, and as Critic Taylor of the New York World truly says, "He has a voice of admirable quality, with a wide upper register, excellent diction and enunciation, and good command of vocal effects, particularly of the mezzo voice."

On his last appearance at Carnegie hall, where he generously responded to no fewer than seventeen encores, the critic of the New York Telegraph said: "Collin O'More last evening sang to one of the largest and most demonstrative and most appreciative audiences that has greeted a singer in Carnegie hall in many a season." O'More is under contract to the Vocalion Phonograph company, and is one of the country's best sellers. His records may be obtained at the Song Shop and also at Roule's.

ASKS DIVORCE
Mrs. Rachael Fish, shown here, asks a divorce from her husband, Smith V. Fish, 46, wealthy Detroit, charging his affections were stolen by a society woman who is 64 and a grandmother.

FIERY, ITCHING SKIN
IS QUICKLY SOOTHED
WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema, that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist. The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up. A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. —Adv.

Teegerstrom Released on $500 Bond

MONROE, La., Jan. 30.—Harold Teegerstrom, time-keeper at the Southern Carbon Co. plant at Spyker, La., for whom a country-wide search was instituted after his disappearance on the night of Dec. 20, when he was wanted as a witness in connection with the Bastrop K.K.K. investigation, was back at his old job today. He was arrested late yesterday and released on $500 bond for his appearance to testify at the grand jury investigation at Bastrop in March.

LORRAINE WYMAN AT THE AUDITORIUM TONIGHT

Lorraine Wyman will appear at the Memorial Auditorium tonight, in a program of French and English folk songs and will be appropriately costumed for each group. The concert is one of the Mores Greeley Parker series and admission will be by tickets until 7.45, when the doors will be thrown open to the general public. Miss Wyman's singing has been approved by musical critics in several of the larger cities where she has appeared and should prove very interesting to all who attend this evening. Her program is as follows:

- I. Le Serenour—A love song from Brittany.
- Le Grillon et la Fourmi—A nursery rhyme from Piedmont.
- Le Hainaut du Marin—A ballad from Brittany.
- Quand Mon Père M'a Mariée—A song from Normandy.
- La Belle Pucelle—A love song from Canada.
- Ma Revenant de Vacances—A work song from Canada.
- II. Little Boy—A nursery rhyme from Kentucky.
- The Old Maid's Song—An Irish song from Kentucky.
- As I Walked Out—A love song from the Kentucky mountains.
- Lord Thomas and Fair Elender—A ballad from Kentucky.
- The Ground Hog—A hunting song from Kentucky.
- III. Lord Lovel—A ballad from England.
- I Know My Love—An Irish love song from Kentucky.
- My Love—A love song from the 18th century.
- A May-Day Carol—A religious song from Bedfordshire.

Mrs. Louis Smith at the piano.

Master comes early this year. If you mention it to the man who sells other things.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

H. K. KEATING'S THEATRE

Just simply knocking 'em out in every city on the Keith circuit are plain Bill Williams and Jack Taylor, "billed as dancing fools." But two of the wisest and cleverest terpsichorean artists on the Keith circuit are the two who are billed as dancing fools. They are the two who are billed as dancing fools. They are the two who are billed as dancing fools.

Reading also in the best numbers of the evening were the Pantheon singers, five in all, presenting a variety of excellent songs and instrumental music. Miss Adeline Hood sang as violinist and pianist extraordinary. Miss O'Neill's soprano is superb and distinguished for sweetness and clarity, and Miss Mena Velliquette, contralto, equally charming with her grace and voice of ample range and quality. Walter Otto, baritone, and Henry Harris, tenor, form the remainder of this quartet of very entertaining singers. Harmony is the finest and the singers know how to show it.

O'Neill's voice has a splendid range, she sings without any apparent effort, and loves her work decidedly. At least in her appearances, Miss Hood's violin-playing is nearly as good as the piano which she used last evening needs tuning.

situation and tries to force his love. A struggle ensues, in which the girl finally wins. The play is a comedy, and the two families are reunited by the girl's brave action.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Once again the Al Lutteringer Play-ers scored when they showed for the first time in Lowell George N. Cohan's great success, "The Meanest Man in the World." At the Opera House last evening, this is only the second play and is an altogether different type of play than "East is West" which was here last week but they showed to the great satisfaction of a large audience last night that they were not to be taken for granted. The play is a comedy, and the two families are reunited by the girl's brave action.

The story opens in New York. A young lawyer unable to make himself successful because he has too much integrity and too much honesty. Finally he goes to go to Hudsonville, Penn. to collect an account and to look up the possibility of a new home. He finds a village and a man who is a lawyer. He is a lawyer, and he is a lawyer. He is a lawyer, and he is a lawyer. He is a lawyer, and he is a lawyer.

THE STRAND THEATRE

Two wonderful pictures are being shown at the Strand theatre the first three days of the week. "The Man Who Played God" and "Shirley of the Circus." In addition there is a play called "The Circus." It is a play, and it is a play. It is a play, and it is a play. It is a play, and it is a play.

The man who played God is a remarkable picture and the fact that it is a play is a fact. It is a play, and it is a play. It is a play, and it is a play. It is a play, and it is a play. It is a play, and it is a play. It is a play, and it is a play.

PREPARING STAGE FOR HIGH SCHOOL SHOW

When one steps upon the stage of the Cyrus W. Irish Auditorium of the Lowell high school these days, there are somewhat taken back at all the "workings" there. Scenery, newly built, is packed against the walls; a skillful scenic artist is there, brushes in hand, painting "wings," "arches," "fireplaces," etc.; and stage carpenters are pounding away building "frames," "staircases," and the like. As you stand there taking it all in it reminds you of what you have read about the metropolitan studios where scenery is built and painted for the "big time" productions. What is it all about, this hustling and bustling? Why they're all working in preparation for the annual Lowell high school dramatic production which is to be given this year. "Only 35," the great New York and Boston comedy-drama success. The play is to be given at the high school auditorium on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week. The Lowell high school dramatic productions, under the direction of Miss Mary C. Joyce, teacher of elocution, have established an enviable reputation throughout the state, and new laurels are added each year. The cast for each production is carefully chosen, then trained capably by Miss Joyce, and the production staged in such a way that would do credit to a New York or Boston production. "Only 35," is a play abounding in human interest, action, comedy, and pathos and gives every individual member of the cast a good opportunity for splendid acting and character portrayals. The scenery, as aforementioned, is being built especially for the production by James Forsythe and Martin J. McKall, and the scenic artist is a Lowell man also in the person of Joseph Broderick, who has established a fine reputation for "scenic sets." A feature in connection with the coming production is the fact that the acoustic properties have been greatly improved so that almost a whisper can be heard from the stage to the last row of the auditorium. This will be welcome news, as speakers, orators, etc., have been somewhat hampered in the past, the voice not being distinctly heard in the rear of the auditorium.

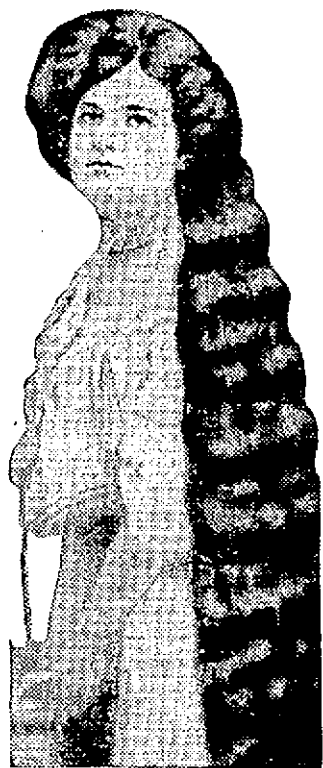

OYSTER STEW

This little run-around of an oyster found a whiskey bottle on the bottom of Chesapeake Bay, crawled in the neck of the bottle, and then proceeded to grow into a perfect stopper. It was found by oyster fishermen and is now the pet of a Baltimore saloon.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IN A MOMENT

Try This! Hair Appears Soft, Colorful and Abundant — A Gleamy Mass
35 Cent Bottle of "Danderine" Also Ends Dandruff; Falling Hair!

Immediately—your hair becomes beautiful. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. It will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil. In a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and really appear twice as thick and abundant—a mass of luxuriant, glossy, colorful hair. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine eradicates dandruff, invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is the best, cheapest and most delightful hair corrective and tonic. It is to the hair what fresh showers of rain are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, vitalizes and strengthens them. Its stimulating properties help the hair to grow long, heavy, strong. You can surely have beautiful hair, and lots of it, if you will spend 35 cents for a bottle of Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter. It is not greasy, oily or sticky.—Adv.

STOMACH BAD!! MEALS SOUR OR LAY UNDIGESTED

Instantly! End Flatulence, Gas, Heartburn, Indigestion

The most potent "Pape's Diapiesin" reaches the stomach all pain and distress from indigestion or a sour, gassy stomach vanishes. Millions know its magic. All druggists recommend this harmless stomach corrective.—Adv.

URGES U. S. TO DEMAND DISAVOWAL BY BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The administration was called upon by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, speaking in the senate yesterday, to make "immediate demand upon the British government to disavow the statements of its chancellor of the exchequer casting aspersions upon the American senate and the American house of representatives and upon the American people; and lastly, upon the American debt funding commission."

The Tennessee senator read the statement given out Saturday by the British chancellor, Stanley Baldwin, upon arriving in England, and said that if Mr. Baldwin had "exhibited the same elements of cordial parsimony and uttered the same crude attacks upon the American people and the American congress while he was here, then the American debt funding commission should not have treated with him at all."

Continuing, Senator McKellar asked: "Where is the great Ambassador Harvey? Why does he not raise his voice in behalf of his government and the American people? Has he lost his voice permanently? He never seems to be on hand when something real is going on."

The Tennessee senator's attack was the first outbreak in either house of congress on the Baldwin statement, but rumblings of resentment had been heard in various quarters at the capital since its publication.

Senator McKellar quoted Mr. Baldwin's statement that "the debt can be funded only on such terms as can be got through congress" and added:

"Evidently, according to Mr. Baldwin, he had no trouble with the debt funding commission or the administration. It would have been all plain sailing if it had not been for what he evidently looked upon as the ignorant congress with which he had indirectly to deal."

LENTEN SEASON

The Lenten season, according to the Julian calendar, which is being followed by the Greek and Syrian Orthodox, will begin on February 19 and will be brought to a close Easter Sunday, April 8. Easter Sunday is one of the greatest feasts of the Orthodox church and will be observed with pomp by the two local communities. The Lenten season according to the Gregorian calendar begins February 14 and is brought to a close Easter Sunday, April 1, which also marks the first day of the Passover, a great Jewish feast.

NORMAL SCHOOL LECTURE

The lecture on "The Development of Character as Related to Self-Expression" which was scheduled to be given at the Normal school next Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 will be given at 11 in the morning instead. Mrs. Ella Lyman Cabot who is to be the lecturer is a member of the advisory board of the department of education. The public is cordially invited to be present at the lecture which will be held in the assembly hall at the Normal school.

MID-WINTER EXAMINATIONS

The first of the mid-winter examinations in the grammar schools were held yesterday and will be continued today. These examinations are one of the routine functions of the school department, examinations being given to all students who have not attained a high rank during the first half of the school year.

SEPARATE WHITE SKIRT

The well-regulated wardrobe will contain at least one white flannel skirt this coming summer for wear with sweaters and separate blouses. It is more apt to be plain than pleated.

FOR THE BLUE SKIRT

Collars of white or tan satin, embroidered in cross-stitch or in peasant embroidery are a colorful touch on the blue serge frock.

WOMAN 93, DIES OF MEASLES

RUTLAND, Jan. 30.—After living 93 years and seldom being sick, Miss Helen M. Todd of Orwell, died yesterday of measles.

RELIEVE PAIN BY REMOVING CAUSE

Headaches and Backaches Caused by Debility Will Return Until System Is Built Up

Mrs. Paul Sandy of No. 20 King street, Waterville, Me., suffered with pains in the head, back and side as the result of a general breakdown in health. She took various treatments for a year or more without permanent relief and it was not until she built up her system with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that she was able to correct the trouble.

"When I got up in the morning," says Mrs. Sandy, "I used to have terrible headaches, a sensation as though a heavy weight pressed down on my head. My back ached all the time and I had a pain in my side which was sharp and cutting. When I bent over it seemed as though my back would break in two. My nerves were on edge all the time."

"Soon after I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I noticed an improvement in my condition. I did not feel so tired and soon the headaches left me. While I was taking the second box the pain in my side went away. I am not nervous now and sleep well. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are certainly a fine tonic. They brought me strength and health and I am glad to recommend them."

A valuable booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, sixty cents per box, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.—Adv.

IMPORTANCE OF GRAY

Gray is to be a very important color this spring particularly in blouses. It is combined with bright colors and is heavily trimmed with cross-stitch or peasant embroidery.

CLEARING SQUARE OF GERMANS

Here are shown French cavalry detachments holding back the crowds at one side of the Essen square in front of the city hall where French generals conferred with the civil authorities.

GLIDER REMAINS IN AIR EIGHT HOURS

CHEBROURG, Jan. 30.—The French aviator Andre Maneyrol has beaten all world glider records by remaining in the air for eight hours one minute and 26 seconds. He took off at 1:34 yesterday afternoon, and landed at 9:15 last night. The flight was made in a peeling rain, but there was a favorite southwesterly breeze.

Lieut. Thoret of the French army, on Jan. 3 last, set a world's glider record at Biskra of 7 hours, 3 minutes.

GOOD MANNERS
Drusque contradictions or interruptions are both rude and unnecessary in a social conversation and they usually can be toned down, so as not to wound, even when unavoidable in a talk of a business nature. Dissent can be expressed in some such way as, "Quite true, but—" An interruption, if it cannot be helped, should be accompanied by a word of apology.

THREE-PIECE SUIT
A three-piece jersey suit for spring comes in a warm shade of tan and is trimmed with bands of crepe de chine of the same color and with yarn embroidery in tan. It has a sleeveless cape that is quite short, reaching only to the waistline and hanging very full.

PROBE DEATH OF GROOM

BOSTON, Jan. 29.—The death of John J. White, the result of an illness developed during his honeymoon in New York, which was reported originally as pneumonia, was under inquiry today, as probably due to poisoning. Married to Miss Charlotte H. McGowan in this city on January 10, White was taken ill five days later, the newlyweds married back from New York and the man died January 23. Relatives explained that he was a victim of pneumonia, the attending physician, Dr. John M. Kelley, said he thought White was suffering from a recurrence of spinal tuberculosis. At the Peter Bent Brigham hospital, suspicious symptoms were noted, a consultation was called, and Medical Examiner George R. Magrath was notified. He conducted an autopsy, removed several organs for analysis, and is understood to have found traces of poison taken in tablet form. Dr. Magrath officially will say only that the death is under investigation.

Parents of Mrs. White confirmed the report that the poison had been found and said they thought it accidental. Friends of the family said White had been a sufferer for years from spinal tuberculosis, thought the end was near, wanted his fiancée to inherit his property and prevented on the young woman to marry him. Mrs. White is reported prostrated and unable to explain when her husband may have taken poison.

FEDERAL DRY AGENTS AT ATLANTIC CITY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 29.—Federal prohibition agents, working independently of state forces, have been here for some time, it was learned today, attempting to discover large supplies of Scotch and rye whiskey of prohibition quality.

The liquor is alleged to have been brought across in small boats from the big run fleet of the coast.

Federal indictments will be sought, and the run-running craft will be libeled as fast as their identities can be discovered, it is stated.

The presence here of large quantities of Scotch at $65 to $75 a case and rye at $60 to $80, is said to lead residents to attest to recent successful activities of the boats which ply between shore and the run fleet from the Bahamas lying off the coast.

Such of the rye, it is reported, is being brought from Philadelphia in fast motor trucks.

HOSPITAL ATTACHE SHOT

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 29.—George Nadeau, attache of the New Hampshire state hospital, was shot Saturday night by John W. Bolton, Jr., of Canterbury, was still in a serious condition today, though his recovery was expected. Adly L. Smith, also shot when he and Nadeau attempted to remove Bolton from his home, was called out of danger. Bolton was a voluntary prisoner at the county jail today, waiting the outcome of the injuries of Nadeau and Smith. He asserted that Smith and Nadeau entered his home in Canterbury late Saturday afternoon and pointed on him in the dark. He broke away and used his revolver, he declared, in self-defense.

FREE STATE ARMY OFFICER KILLED

DUBLIN, Jan. 29 (By the Associated Press).—Captain Coyne of the national army was shot dead and three soldiers were wounded when a party of troops was ambushed by irregulars between Abbeystead and Brooma, on the Limerick-Kerry border, Saturday. It became known today.

The attacking party is said to have left the captain's body at the roadside, stripped of all clothing.

At about the same time a party of eight soldiers ambushed at Castlemaine, County Kerry, but reinforcements arrived and the irregulars were scattered with a loss of one killed and several wounded.

Sealed bids will be received at the Office of the Purchasing Agent for furnishing the following material on the date indicated below:

MOVES TO END B. & M. SHOPMEN'S STRIKE

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 29.—Labor Commissioner John S. B. Davis today stated that he had sent communications to both parties to the strike of Boston & Maine railroad shopmen, urging submission of points at issue to the New Hampshire board of conciliation and arbitration. His plan calls for submission of all evidence and for a decision, covering a period of six months, "binding on both parties in interest." Mr. Davis said he would make no further move until sufficient time had elapsed for consideration of his proposal.

BRINGS SUIT TO PREVENT WEDDING

PARIS, Jan. 29.—(By the Associated Press) Suit to prevent his daughter from marrying has been brought here by Colonel William Littauer of New York. The action which was called for today in the first Paris civil court, would enjoin Catherine Louise Littauer from becoming the bride of William Elton Doeller, who has an automobile business in New York.

Col. Littauer's attorney contended that the young people are subject to the French laws, which require parental consent to marry, while Mr. Doeller's counsel pleaded that they can be married in France without such consent, since they are American citizens.

4th of Family to Lose Life as Result of Fire

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 29.—May Litzinger, aged 6, died in the Altoona hospital today the fourth member of the Litzinger family to lose her life as the result of a fire which destroyed the home at Conjon, a little mountain town, late Saturday night. The other victims were Mrs. Rosa Litzinger, her sons, Vernon, aged 13, and Edgar, aged 8. Charles, aged 10, was so badly hurt that it was feared he too would die.

Lamar, "Wolf of Wall St.," Must Go to Jail

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Holding that his motion for a writ of habeas corpus was for the purpose of delaying his incarceration and was without merit, the supreme court today ruled that David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall street," would be required to go to jail and serve the sentence imposed on him on conviction of the charge of conspiracy in restraint of foreign commerce.

Dry Chief Has Evidence of Extortion Plots

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—John E. Earley, chief prohibition agent for Illinois, today had evidence regarding alleged extortion plots practiced throughout Illinois, which he said he would present to Commissioner Haynes at Washington. The alleged confession was reported to have been made by Edward J. Hendrick, a former federal prohibition agent and to have involved one group chief, a number of agents and a Chicago brewery. Baker, University of Chicago.

Illness of Counsel Delays Hearing

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 29.—The illness of counsel for William F. Jardine, temporary guardian for Dorothy Gordon, the heiress to an estate of $400,000 who is an inmate of a hospital for the insane, prevented the opening today of the hearing on the petition of John D. Gardiner of Baldwin, L. I., uncle of the heiress, that he be made permanent guardian. February 6 was set as the date when the hearings will be started.

Jack Daw on Icicle Isle, Chapter 18

"At the top of the hill were many great snow balls. "Those," said the king, "are our snow clouds." "And how do you make them?" asked Jack. "Well," replied the king, "I will show you. Just sit down with your dog and we'll give you a push down this hill. Then you'll soon see."

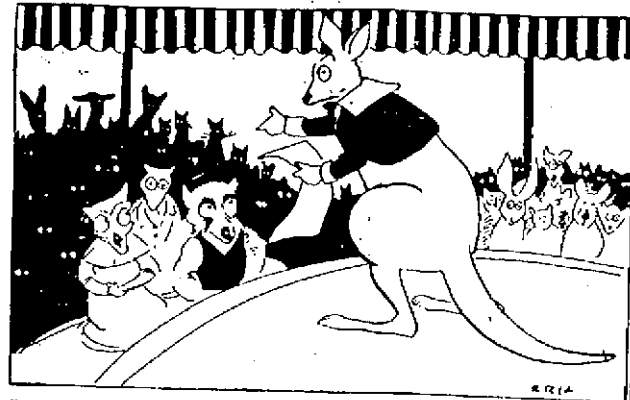

In an instant Jack and Flip were tumbling over and over. Jack had his arms tightly around his dog so he wouldn't lose him. As they rolled down the hill the snow around them grew bigger and bigger. "Why," shouted Jack, "we're making a regular snow ball. Wonder where we will stop."

Then the big pile of snow that Jack and Flip had picked up, hit another pile and broke into bits. Jack and Flip landed on the ground—right at the place where they had started their coast that led him into Snow Village. Jack Daw's next adventure takes him to Toyland.

Adventures of The Twins

DREAMLAND SCHOOL

"THEN," SAID JACK JUMPING MOUSE, JUMPING UP TO THE PLATFORM, "THIS IS MY SPEECH!"

Nancy and Nick and Dusty Coat called all the Dreamland people around them.

"I wonder what's going to happen next!" whispered Wally Woodchuck to Scramble Squirrel. Scramble had only come for a week's stay, but Wally intended to stay all winter. Some people are luckier than others. Just like going on a two-week vacation and finding that everybody else can stay as long as he likes.

Well, anyway, Nancy and Nick had an idea and called everybody to hear it.

"We're going to have school," Nancy announced.

"Oh, shucks!" said Wally to Scramble. "That isn't what I came for."

"Me either," agreed Scramble, edging closer to the better to hear.

"Don't look so cross everybody!" laughed Nancy. "This is a new kind of school. It's a school where everybody may talk as much as he likes and say anything he pleases. I'll be teacher and Nick will be principal. Everybody sit down, please."

So everybody sat down.

"Mr. Jack Jumping Mouse will please recite!" she went on.

Jack Jumping Mouse, now grown as large as a kangaroo since he came to Dreamland, got up. "Then he looked about cautiously. 'It's about the cat I wish to speak,' he whispered, 'and I don't wish him to hear. Has he gone yet?'"

"Yes!" spoke up Dusty Coat, the fairy godman. "He only comes and goes when he's taking short cat naps. Besides he always changes to Pussy-in-Boots when he comes. But he never stays long."

"Then," said Jack Jumping Mouse, jumping up to the platform, "this is my speech:

"I dislike owls, also the cat. For they're both found out where I live at."

"I wish in Dreamland I could stay. For it's safer than the meadow and a stack of hay."

"That's all I know," said he with a bow.

"Fine!" cried everybody, clapping. (To Be Continued)

BEFORE BREAKFAST THE SUPREME TEST

BY MARIAN HALE

Gladys Cooper is heralded as the most beautiful actress in England. I believe she is.

I saw her clad in a simple blue silk nightgown, her blond hair, with its natural wave, hanging loose about her exquisitely modeled shoulders.

She was propped up in bed, for I called early in the morning.

"A beautiful figure is more to be desired than a perfect profile."

"In France they judge a woman by her appearance from the tips of her toes to the top of her head. I do that, instinctively. Faces don't interest me, aside from what they contribute to the whole effect."

Miss Cooper holds that plain women can cultivate beauty.

"I mean," she explains, "that beauty is merely the emphasizing of the distinctive things about one's self."

"I cultivate beauty," I should say, cultivate yourself and your mentality. Then progress along your own particular line. Distinction is bound to come.

All Can Excel

"Have you noticed the differences in children? Some are lovely, individual, charming. Others are just plain, drab things. The drab ones could be just as beautiful as the others if someone took the pains to fix them up and cultivate them."

"That's all I see to beauty—or charm—or whatever it is that makes a woman admired—just the knowledge of how to find your type and bring yourself up to it."

Miss Cooper came to America for just a week, in the hope of finding a play to take back to London for production.

ST. VALENTINE SALAD

2 cups white cherries (canned)
1 pint pimentos (canned red peppers)
4 slices canned pineapple
1 grape fruit
1 cup well seasoned mayonnaise
1-2 cup cream beaten until stiff
1 head lettuce or escarole.

Remove pits from cherries; cut the pimentos into small pieces; cut pineapple into dice, and remove sections from grapefruit, cutting them into shreds. Add a sprinkling of salt and thoroughly chill the fruit. When ready to serve, mix with the mayonnaise and cream. Into the pastry hearts place three heart leaves of lettuce or escarole and on these place a spoonful of the fruit salad. Dust with paprika and serve.

For the pastry hearts use:

1-2 cups flour
1-2 teaspoonful salt
Ice water
1 cup grated cheese mixed with
1-4 teaspoon salt and a few grains of cayenne
1-4 cup lard
1-4 cup butter

Mix flour, salt and lard together. Moisten to a stiff dough with the ice water. Take onto a floured board; roll out, spread with the butter, sprinkle with flour, fold into three folds and chill. Roll out to one-fourth inch in thickness. Sprinkle with cheese; fold, roll out and repeat twice, using a third of the cheese each time. Again chill, then roll to one-fourth inch in thickness, and with a heart-shaped cutter, cut as many hearts as desired for individual service. With a pointed knife or another smaller cutter remove center, leaving a wall half an inch thick.

First Hours Hardest

The first hours are the hardest, as every woman knows. One who is beautiful before breakfast need not worry about the rest of the day.

Her secret? Hard work, country life, a youthful spirit!

She has played continuously in London for three years without a vacation, but she always lives in the country.

GLADYS COOPER

Yet, without makeup or artifice, she was one of the most perfect things I've ever seen.

THE MASTER VIOLINIST LOCAL LABOR LEADERS

Fritz Kreisler Delights Audience at Auditorium—Carl
Lamson Accompanist

Fritz Kreisler, master violinist, who recently returned from his native Austria, where for the past year he has devoted his time and a great deal of his money in relief work among thousands of his less fortunate people, played at the Memorial Auditorium last evening and freshened the hearts of accomplishment and artistry that have been his for so long. Associated with him as accompanist was Carl Lamson, than which there is none more delightful and who rightfully shared in the audience's appreciation. The great hall showed many empty chairs, more is the pity, but this may be explained by counter attractions of importance and then, too it was Kreisler's third visit to the city.

The program presented, and hardly more than an hour and a half and seemed to reach conclusion long before its time, but included in it were poignant manifestations of the artist's skill, beautiful music, rich tonal effects, exquisite shading and without a master's touch.

As his first number Kreisler chose to play the Beethoven sonata in G-minor in four movements and opening and closing in rapid allegro passages. Perfect unity of thought and interpretation between the violinist and his accompanist marked this beautiful suite which was followed by Bach composition for violin only. Here pitfalls were many and the demands of artistry severe, but Kreisler avoided the first attained the other with consummate skill and richly earned the generosity of his audience as portrayed in the sustained applause accorded him at the conclusion of the presto movement.

All the pleasure round by the audience in the old masters was sustained and accentuated in the lighter section of the program, which embraced Cyril Scott's "Lotus Land," the Spanish Dance of Granados, a Lendondery Air "Farewell to Cuckoo," and two sketches from Scheerazade by Rimsky-Korsakoff.

Whispered notes played on muted strings, with the piano establishing the mood of the violin sustaining it, made the Scott number a beautiful dream filled with the fragrance of the land of which the composer wrote. For sheer loveliness it seemed to stand out prominently in the program and the applause that followed it voiced the impression of the audience.

In the hands of Kreisler the first instrument of the orchestra continues to hold its position, the envy of all other strings and through which the voices and moods of the masters are able to find full expression.

The printed program in detail ran as follows:

1. Sonata G-minor..... Beethoven
2. Partita in G-minor..... Bach
3. (a) Lotus Land..... Cyril Scott
- (b) Spanish Dance..... Granados
- (c) Farewell to Cuckoo.....
- (d) Two Sketches..... Rimsky-Korsakoff
1. Chanson Arabe
2. Danse Orientale.

TWAS COLD NIGHT TO WAIT FOR CARS

Ipswich, Alaska, had nothing on the open-air waiting corners in our favorite square last night. With the mercury eight degrees below zero, it was everybody's night once more in the waiting rooms with the star-studded canopies. And everybody had the usual 1923 refrigerator look, the icy stare of desperate frigidity and the scowling demerol that indicates hard thinking.

Down at the car barn they said every extra car in the city was out, but a good many commuters had to stand the waiting gaff just the same on the Bridge and Pidge street corners as well as over on Merrimack street where they crowded all the doorways and slowly froze.

Sixteen Below in Caribbe
The mercury shot downward swiftly last evening, and registers showed various death figures in the surrounding towns. In Lowell, glasses showed readings much lower than the locks & Canals "official," which was 5 below.

Chelmsford Centre this morning reported 12 below. Caribbe reported 12 below, and South Chelmsford at Emerson's grocery store, reported 12 below, with 14 in another section of the village.

The strong north and northwest winds that blew all last night and again today, made it seem a great deal colder to pedestrians and others obliged to go outdoors this morning. Tomorrow it may be a little warmer, with possibly snow at night.

The 24th Semi-Annual Meeting of The Lowell Co-operative Ass'n will be held at the Lowell Sun Building, Wednesday, Jan. 31, at 8 o'clock. All stockholders are requested to attend.

J. S. MacINNIS, Clerk.

LAST EVENING

HON. CHARLES S. O'CONNOR

HON. MICHAEL J. MURRAY

Inspiring Addresses by Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, Judge Murray and Hon. Charles S. O'Connor of Boston and Others—Entertainment and Buffet Lucheon—Members Delighted With New Quarters

After many months of expectant waiting and fond anticipation, the beautiful new home of the Lowell Knights of Columbus in Dutton street was opened and formally dedicated last night in the presence of over 1000 old and new members. The building was thrown open to inspection shortly before 7 o'clock and from that hour until midnight the enthusiastic members viewed with amazement the almost unbelievable transformation that had taken place in the structure in the course of one short year. unanimous approbation is, judging by the expressed sentiment of all, assured. The new home of the Lowell Knights of Columbus in Dutton street was opened and formally dedicated last night in the presence of over 1000 old and new members. TRUSTEES ESTIMATE $35,360.96 AS COST OF MAINTAINING AUDITORIUM FOR YEAR

The board of trustees of the Memorial Auditorium estimate it will cost $35,360.96 to maintain the building this year, and have presented this figure as their departmental budget. Wages are figured at $17,830.96 and all expenses and supplies at $17,530. To maintain the building for a portion of last year—an appropriation therefore being made in July—it cost $14,045.51.

The building's operating staff includes a building manager, four watchmen, one laborer, two firemen and three janitresses. In the supply and expense schedule, $1000 is asked for the purchase of new furniture.

Gen. De Goutte Declares Forces in Ruhr Will Break Stubbornness of Their Adversaries

JUNE NOW ONLY A FEW STEPS AWAY

The first heartening assurance that spring and summer are somewhere on the trail ahead and that each passing day of shivering cold brings them nearer, is the announcement that the trustees of the Memorial Auditorium have received application from the high school to use the building on June 27 for the graduating exercises of the class of 1923.

TURK LEADER READY FOR WAR

Kemal at Mother's Grave Takes Oath to Defend Liberties of Turkey

Leaves for Angora Amid Such Demonstrations as Usually Take Place on Eve of War

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Interest in the Near East situation, revived by the delicate state of affairs at Lausanne was intensified here today by a Times dispatch from Constantinople reporting the departure of Mustafa Kemal Pasha from Smyrna for Angora amid such demonstrations as usually take place before the outbreak of war. The Turkish Nationalist leader is reported to have visited the grave of his mother where he swore that he would rather join her in death than "allow the sovereignty which the Turkish people reconquered at the price of blood to be imperilled." Kemal also is said to have taken oath by his mother's soul that he would defend the liberties of Turkey.

ISSUES WARNING AT DUESSELDORF

Germans "Mistaken to Think Our Patience Has No Limits," Says De Goutte

Will Soon Be Possible to Say Where Mad Policy of Berlin Has Led Germany

State of Siege Throughout the Ruhr Valley Imminent—Proclamation Issued

(By the Associated Press.)—New measures by the French and Belgians to make the extended occupation of German territory more effective, are forecast in today's advice.

General De Goutte, French commander in the Ruhr, is quoted as declaring in an interview that further measures to bring the Germans to terms would soon be decided upon. In apparent pursuance of this policy France and Belgium, it is announced in Brussels, have agreed on measures to be taken in the Ruhr in the near future. The agreement, reached at a conference between high French and Belgian officials, including General Weygand, Marshal Foch's chief of staff, and Premier Thomsen of Belgium, was to be put into effect immediately. The German railroad workers are continuing their sabotage campaign against French attempts to operate the Ruhr railways, but the Ruhr gas and electric workers have decided not to strike. The mines are still turning out a two-thirds coal supply, but the railroad men threaten to continue shutting down of the pits. In Duesseldorf, the striking telegraph service employees have resumed work. The Paris foreign office declares the strike situation is improving, particularly in the Rhineeland where Coblenz, Continued on Page Ten

WINTER CARNIVAL PLANS

Program of Events Practically Settled, Including Many Novel Features

Members of the park commission and representatives of the Lowell Ad Club met last night to discuss plans and a definite program of events for the winter carnival to be held at Fort Hill park Thursday and Friday of this week. The result was the following program, although not arranged chronologically as the exact schedule will not be ready before tomorrow. Tug-of-war for distance, seven and four person boats; up hill and down toboggan relay races, relay snowshoes, ski races, snow ball fights, "dog team" races, obstacle races, barrel steeple races, tug of war and ski jumping. In addition there will be a motor contest. Continued on Page Ten

MAIL CARRIERS TO DROP FOOD FOR BIRDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Postmaster General Work has issued orders to rural route mail carriers to distribute grains along their routes for starving birds, when supplies of such bird feed are furnished to them. The order resulted from a request of a state game warden who asked that the carriers be permitted to participate in the benevolent work of furnishing food to birds when the ground is covered with snow.

BORAH RENEWS HIS PROPOSAL

Calls for Internal Economic Conference Called by Pres. Harding

Proposal Expected to Bring Another Storm in the United States Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Senator Borah renewed in the senate today his proposal for an internal economic conference, called by President Harding. The conference proposal, which already has been the center of one senate storm and is expected to develop another, was submitted this time by the Idaho senator as a separate resolution, which at his own request immediately was laid aside for consideration after pending farm credits legislation is out of the way. However, Mr. Borah indicated that when the proper time came, he probably would move and the resolution as an amendment to some bill already under discussion.

MOSUL QUESTION FOR THE LEAGUE

Dispute Between Great Britain and Turkey Brought Before Council of League

Lord Balfour Appeals for Action—Declares Menace to Peace Involved

PARIS, Jan. 30. (By the Associated Press.)—The dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over the Iraqi frontier, involving the oil producing fields of Mosul, was brought before the council of the League of Nations today by the Earl of Balfour. He called the council's attention to the letter written by Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, on this subject.

Mosul, said Lord Balfour, was a question for the league to consider, because the Iraq was mandated territory. Great Britain acting in that territory in behalf of the League of Nations. The question furthermore was of interest to the league, said Lord Balfour, because of the menace to peace that was involved in the dispute. He asked the council to take note of the situation and also to express itself regarding Article XVII of the league covenant, which he thought might give the Turks a pretext to an equal footing by the council.

BUDGET AND AUDIT COMMISSION WILL HOLD FIRST PRUNING SESSION TOMORROW

Commission Will Go Over Estimates of All Departments—Mayor Has Asked For Rigid Retrenchment and He Will Attend Meeting Tomorrow—Expected That Commission Will Cut Deep Into Figures Before Submitting Budget to Mayor

The budget and audit commission will begin its 1923 budget deliberations tomorrow, with Mayor John J. Donovan meeting with them. These appropriations sessions were scheduled to get under way today, but Tyler A. Stevens, commission chairman, was unable to meet and asked to have them postponed until tomorrow morning. When the commission begins its work it will have before it estimates from all major departments and practically all appropriations except those included under the head of fixed charges, which are made up in the auditor's office. Although the school department estimates are not in the auditor's hands at present it is expected they will be tomorrow inasmuch as the school committee meets tonight to discuss and approve them. Many departmental estimates probably will have before it estimates from (Continued on last page)

ROTARIANS AT HAMILTON AS GUESTS OF AGENT MILLIKEN

Dinner in the Plant Followed by Interesting Journey Through One of City's Leading Cloth Mills With Genial Agent as Master of Ceremonies and Guide

Albert D. Milliken, agent of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., appeared today in the role of Mine Host for brother Rotarians and accompanying guests, at the big textile plant on Jackson street. The Rotarian mill executive appeared to be anxious to give the clubmen something to remember, and he succeeded.

In a four-roles-in-one capacity as chief host, reception committee of one, or houses, "hosting" room, No. 6 and all around the windy mill yards. The procession of wandering clubmen, many of them seeing the inside of a modern textile mill for the very first time as a matter of fact, was rather novel. The appearance of a band of Lowell business men in natty fedoras and derbies, top-coats, business suits, nobby gloves and a few with new walking sticks, rather upset one or two of the textile departments where energetic spinners and other textile workers of the feminine gender labor incessantly from day to day. Every room has to be tended carefully, less the operators' attention be diverted for the inner and "second" cloth turned out. So the orders went out to Rotary just before the grand march to the operators' rooms: "Watch your steps! Don't attract attention! Keep moving! You know there is a possibility of 'second' if you boys of the Rotary attract too much attention. March!" And they all obeyed orders, but kept their eyes wide open just the same and the sights they saw in some of the textile rooms were very pleasing to the eye indeed. So some of the young Rotarians said after the walk-around. But no Rotarian stopped any loom so far as the record shows. It actually was one of the most interesting sightseeing tours ever conducted. ## LECTURE AT THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

The fifth lecture of a series of ten on "Personal Development" was given at the Normal school yesterday by Mr. William E. Riley, instructor of penmanship at the school whose subject was "The Development of Skills Psychologically Considered."

Mr. Riley, principal of the school, in introducing Mr. Riley to the assembly said that he believed the lecture would be one of the most interesting of the series as skill in any line adds to personality and that Mr. Riley's skill was known throughout the state wherever a graduate of the school taught.

Mr. Riley opened his talk with a poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox which he said contained the explanation of his subject:

"One ship sails east, another west
With the self-same winds that blow;
This the set of the sails and not the gale
Which decides the way we go."

The first part of Mr. Riley's lecture was taken up with the subject of skill on machines, in the handling of tools, and the attainment of rhythm between man and tool. In this regard Mr. Riley stated that two of the most puzzling questions in regard to machinery were "What speed shall I use?" and "What feed shall I use?" and that the solving of these questions took upwards of 20 years. Mr. Riley told of several instances where, in testing the efficiency of the worker, it was found that more work was done in the first hour than was done in any other hour during the day. Numerous tests were made by changing the working hours but it was found that the result was practically the same; finally it was found that by a rest period after every hour and fifteen minutes work the production would be as high every hour as it was the first hour previously. Mr. Riley also illustrated several ways of using a shovel, a saw, and a sledge-hammer so that the maximum amount of work

SANDS SIDEWALKS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Patrolman Bill Keegan, is always popular with school children, some of whom are now calling him good-naturedly "The Sandman."

The reason why Keegan obtained this childhood storybook cognomen was discovered today, when pedestrians hurrying to work, saw the patrolman diligently sanding the sidewalks in the vicinity of Fair, Merrimack and High streets, so little children marching to school could navigate the slippery side-walk walks and dangerous curbs and gutters without tumbling and spoiling their natty go-to-school clothes.

The patrolman's thoughtfulness was noted by numerous people in the East Merrimack street neighborhood, definitely the occupants of the corner building where the icy slides were left untouched until the patrolman came along and did the owner's job for him.

could be done without tiring the worker as much as tending on the job would. All through the different lines of work the tool, the man and the job must, for efficient work, be co-ordinated.

Mr. Riley then spoke of the psychology in teaching and asked "How do we learn anyway?" Some of the oldest psychologists tell us there are two ways, the self-dependent and the learning from a foreign influence." He then listed six methods developing from these two as a base. First, learning by instinct; second, learning from someone else's experience; third, by an intelligent understanding of a new experience; fourth, by instruction through imitation; fifth, by training others by the impressions with which you are endowed; and sixth, the most important of all, by intelligent teaching.

In regard to learning by intelligent teaching Mr. Riley brought forth the subject with which he is most familiar, the teaching of penmanship. He explained how it was necessary to get the child to control the pen and how the child was called upon to control the muscles, first the large and then the small, until finally he can make the proper movement which spells success in penmanship, all this depending upon intelligent teaching and by a thorough understanding of the subject by the teacher.

In closing Mr. Riley gave an explanation of the word "Service" embodying all the elements necessary to the attainment of success: "S stands for sacrifice, in that nothing is attained without something else being given up; E for ethics; R for religion by which we acknowledge our duty to ourselves, to God and to man; V for vision; I for industry, without which we cannot gain anything; C for charity, that which gives what justice does not demand; and the E which surrounds all the others—education."

How to Darken
Gray Hair

A Chinatown Barber Tells How To Make a Remedy for Gray Hair

A well known resident of Chinatown, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 12 ounces glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is attained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—Adv.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OFFICERS ELECTED

All of the officers of the chamber of commerce were re-elected yesterday at a meeting of the new board of directors, and are as follows:

President, Edward Fisher; first vice president, Elmore I. MacPhie; second vice president, Albert D. Milliken; treasurer, George Wagner.

After the election of officers considerable routine business was transacted. Plans for the annual dinner to be held at the Auditorium were talked over, considerable interest being shown in regard to this affair. It was voted to hold a referendum among members of the chamber in regard to daylight saving. The new board of directors is as follows:

Edward B. Carney, Fred C. Church, Sr., Charles H. Johnson, John A. Hunnewell, Edward Fisher, E. I. MacPhie, Harry G. Pollard, Donald M. Cameron, Elmore I. MacPhie, H. Hutchins Parker, Tyler Stevens, Royal P. White, Percy J. Wilson, Royal K. Dexter and Albert D. Milliken.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made

Here's an easy way to cure a cold and get rid of the cough, too.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

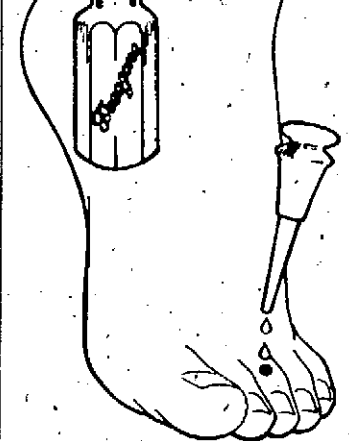

It is really wonderful how quick this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, breaks the membrane, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit. Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Adv.

Boston Chamber Indorses Amendment

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—Amendment of the United States constitution, as proposed in a joint resolution now before congress so as to permit the federal government to tax all government and state bond issues and granting states similar power, has been indorsed by the Boston chamber of commerce. The board of directors of the chamber in declaring itself in favor of the proposed legislation said that exemption of such issues from taxation "tends to nullify income tax laws, discourages investment in industrial securities and encourages governmental extravagances."

THE COMING OF O'MORE

Mr. Arthur Hadley, manager of Colin O'More, one of the world's greatest tenors, arrived in Lowell yesterday to arrange with Mr. John Finnegan, under whose auspices the great singer is to appear at the Memorial Auditorium, Feb. 11, all of the details incident to the concert.

Mr. O'More recently electrified the music lovers of New York city, where he made several appearances at Carnegie hall, and he is scheduled to appear in two concerts at Symphony hall, Boston, within the next few weeks. The great tenor reminds one of John McCormack in many respects, and as Critic Taylor of the New York World truly says, "He has a voice of admirable quality, with a wide upper register, excellent diction and enunciation, and good command of vocal effects, particularly of the mezzo voice."

On his last appearance at Carnegie hall, where he generously responded to no fewer than seventeen encores, the critic of the New York Telegraph said: "Colin O'More last evening sang to one of the largest and most demonstrative and most appreciative audiences that has greeted a singer in Carnegie hall in many a season."

O'More is under contract to the Vocalion Phonograph company, and is one of the country's best sellers. His records may be obtained at the Song Shop and also at Boulger's.

FIERY, ITCHING SKIN IS QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema, that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist. The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up. A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. Adv.

Teegerstrom Released on $500 Bond

MONROE, La., Jan. 30.—Harold Teegerstrom, time-keeper at the Southern Carbon Co. plant at Spyker, La., for whom a country-wide search was instituted after his disappearance on the night of Dec. 29, when he was wanted as a witness in connection with the Bastrop K.K.K. investigation, was back at his old job today. He was arrested late yesterday and released on $500 bond for his appearance to testify at the grand jury investigation at Bastrop in March.

Providence at Lowell
Worcester at New Bedford

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 30.—Portland defeated New Bedford, 3 to 0, last night in the wildest game of polo ever seen here. The visitors lost the only goal they scored by making three errors when Referee Welch allowed Bouchard's free try for goal to count in the third period, although the New Bedford team was lined up there was a near riot. New Bedford players left the field and spectators rushed down from their seats but after a long argument and intervention by the police the visitors finally returned and finished the game. ## GLIDER REMAINS IN AIR EIGHT HOURS

CHERBOURG, Jan. 20.—The French aviator Andre Maneyrol has beaten all world glider records by remaining in the air for eight hours and one minute and 25 seconds. He took off at 1:13.34 yesterday afternoon, and landed at 9:14 last night. The flight was made in a pelting rain, but there was a favorable southwesterly breeze.

Lieut. Thoret of the French army, on Jan. 3 last, set a world's glider record at Jiskra of 7 hours, 3 minutes.

GOOD MANNERS
Brusque contradictions or interruptions are both rude and unnecessary in a social conversation and they usually can be toned down, so as not to wound, even when unavoidable in a talk of a business nature. Dislike can be expressed in some such way as, "Quite true, but..." An interruption, if it cannot be helped, should be accompanied by a word of apology.

PREPARING STAGE FOR HIGH SCHOOL SHOW

"When one steps upon the stage of the Lowell high school these days, they are somewhat taken back at all the 'workings' there. Scenery, newly built, in packed against the walls; a skillful scenic artist is there, brushes in hand, painting 'wings,' 'arches,' 'fireplaces,' etc.; and stage carpenters are pounding away building 'frames,' 'entrances' and the like. As you stand there taking it all in it reminds you of what you have read about the metropolitan studios where scenery is built and painted for the 'big time' productions. What is it all about, this hustling and bustling? Why these all working in preparation for the annual Lowell high school dramatic production which is to be given this year. Only 35, the great New York and Boston comedy-drama success. The play is to be given at the high school auditorium on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week. The Lowell high school dramatic productions, under the direction of Miss Mary C. Joyce, teacher of elocution, have established an enviable reputation throughout the state, and new laurels are added each year. The cast for each production is carefully chosen, then trained carefully by Miss Joyce, and the production staged in such a way that would do credit to a New York or Boston production. This year's show, 'Only 35,' had a big run in New York, a play abounding in human interest, action, comedy, and pathos and gives every individual member of the cast a good opportunity for splendid acting and character portrayals. The scenery, as mentioned, is being built especially for the production by James Forsythe and Martin J. Mitchell, and the scenic artist is a Lowell man also in the person of Joseph Broderick, who has established a fine reputation for 'single sets.' A feature in connection with the coming production is the fact that the scenic properties have been greatly improved so that almost a whisper can be heard from the stage to the last row of the auditorium. This will be welcome news, as spectators, entertainers, etc., have been somewhat hampered in the past, their voices not being distinctly heard in the rear of the auditorium.

MURPHY FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—Jesse Murphy, on trial for the murders in 1917 of Edward T. Foley and Orway R. Hall, chain store managers, of which Geo. and Charles Rollins, brothers, previously had been convicted, was found not guilty by a jury early last night. The case had been in the hands of the jury about two and one-half hours. Although freed on the murder charges, Murphy was held for the state police to serve an unfinished sentence of larceny at the Deer Island house of correction. Several years ago, while a prisoner at Deer Island, Murphy was taken ill and sent to the prison camp at Rutland. While there he escaped. He will be compelled now to serve seven months of the unfinished term. Murphy's trial attracted wide attention. After making a confession while a prisoner in the Eastern penitentiary of Pennsylvania for robbery of the Federal Reserve bank of Philadelphia that he killed both Foley and Hall, he was pardoned by Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania and brought back to Boston for trial on murder charges. He still had nine years of the penitentiary sentence to serve. At the trial his defense was that he signed the confession for the purpose of securing a pardon in Pennsylvania.

TOWN MEETING Dracut Will Hold Annual Meeting February 12

The annual Dracut town meeting will be held in Grange hall, Centre village, on Monday, Feb. 12. The election of officers will take place next Monday, the voting to be conducted in the various precincts of the town. Much interest is being shown in the election for the various offices, and the Kenwood district is showing a keen interest in the school board contest, for a resident of that section of the town, Arthur W. Pilotte, is a candidate for that office. The friends of Mr. Pilotte, who are interested in his candidacy will hold a rally at the Kenwood engine house next Thursday night and they hope that all the residents of the district will be in attendance. Mr. Pilotte is a well known young man, and counts a host of friends in the various sections of his native town. He was a candidate for the school board last year and was defeated by only 16 votes, and that was considered a splendid showing for his first appearance in politics.

On Monday the voters of the town will be called upon to elect a town clerk for a term of three years, a town treasurer, one selectman, one overseer of the poor and member of the board of health for a term of three years; one highway commissioner for a term of three years, three members of the school committee for a term of three years, one constable and collector of taxes, two library trustees for a term of three years, one town warden, one cemetery commissioner for a term of three years. In addition they shall be asked to vote "yes" or "no" upon the following question: "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages in this town for the ensuing year?" The voting will be conducted at St. Mary's hall, Centre village, precinct 2; Grange hall, Centre village, precinct 3; and Kenwood fire station, precinct 4.

The town warrant for the annual meeting contains 45 articles. The first six articles are for ordinary routine business. Article seven calls for an appropriation of $3000 for the construction of Arlington street. Articles 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20 are also for routine matters. Under article 21 an appropriation of $576.50 is asked for the payment of unpaid bills to the charity department of the city of Lowell. Article 23 calls for an appropriation of $600 for the installation of a siren on the Kenwood fire station. Under article 24 it is asked to appropriate the sum of $11,065 for the purchase of an automobile for apparatus for the town. The other important article is article 25 which calls for an appropriation of $2500 for the purchase of land and erection of a fire house in Collinville. Most of the other articles have to do with the acceptance of streets and the installation of street lights.

URGES U. S. TO DEMAND DISAVOWAL BY BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The administration was called upon by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, speaking in the senate yesterday, to make "immediate demand upon the British government to disavow the statements of its chancellor of the exchequer casting aspersions upon the American people and the American house of representatives and upon the American debt funding commission. The Tennessee senator read the statement given out Saturday by the British chancellor, Stanley Baldwin, upon arriving in England, and said that if Mr. Baldwin had exhibited the same elements of cordiality towards the American people and the American congress while he was here, then the American debt funding commission should not have treated with him at all.

Continuing, Senator McKellar asked: "Where is the great Ambassador Harvey? Why does he not raise his voice in behalf of his government and the American people? Has he lost his voice permanently? He never seems to be on hand when something real is going on."

The Tennessee senator's attack was the first outbreak in either house of congress on the Baldwin statement, but rumblings of resentment had been heard in various quarters at the capital since its publication.

Senator McKellar quoted Mr. Baldwin's statement that "the debt can be funded only on such terms as can be got through congress" and added: "Evidently, according to Mr. Baldwin, he had no trouble with the debt funding commission or the administration. It would have been all plain sailing if it had not been for what he

RELIEVE PAIN BY REMOVING CAUSE

Headaches and Backaches Caused by Debility Will Return Until System is Built Up

Mrs. Paul Sandy of No. 20 King street, Waterville, Me., suffered with pains in the head, back and side as the result of a general breakdown in health. She took various treatments for a year or more without permanent relief and it was not until she built up her system with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that she was able to correct the trouble.

"When I got up in the morning," says Mrs. Sandy, "I used to have terrible headaches, a sensation as though a heavy weight pressed down on my head. My back ached all the time and I had a pain in my side which was sharp and cutting. When I went over it seemed as though my back would break in two. My nerves were on edge all the time."

"Soon after I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I noticed an improvement in my condition. I did not feel so tired and soon the headaches left me. While I was taking the second box the pain in my side went away. I am not nervous now and sleep well. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are certainly a fine tonic. They brought me strength and health and I am glad to recommend them."

A valuable booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, sixty cents per box, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.—Adv.

IMPORTANCE OF GRAY
Gray is to be a very important color this spring particularly in blouses. It is combined with bright colors and is heavily trimmed with cross-stitch or peasant embroidery.

Jack Daw on Icicle Isle. Chapter 18.

At the top of the hill were many great snow balls. "Those," said the king, "are our snow clouds." "And how do you make them?" asked Jack. "Well," replied the king, "I will show you. Just sit down with your dog and we'll give you a push down this hill. Then you'll soon see."

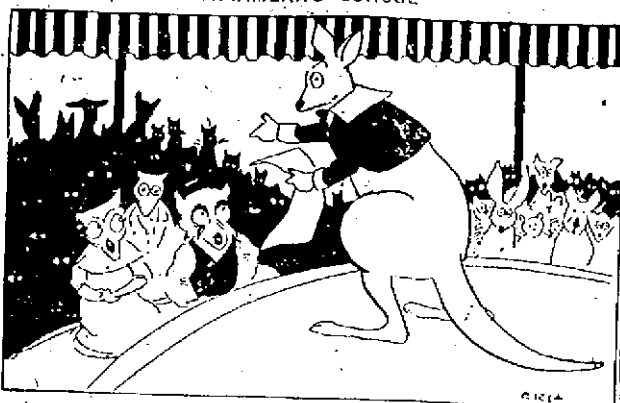

In an instant Jack and Flip were tumbling over and over. Jack had his arms tightly around his dog so he wouldn't lose him. As they rolled down the hill the snow around them grew bigger and bigger. "Why," shouted Jack, "we're making a regular snow ball. Wonder where we will stop."

Then the big pile of snow that Jack and Flip had picked up, hit another pile and broke into bits. Jack and Flip landed on the ground—right at the place where they had started their coast that led him into Snow Village. Jack Daw's next adventure takes him to Toyland.

Adventures of The Twins

DREAMLAND SCHOOL

"THEN," SAID JACK JUMPING MOUSE, JUMPING UP TO THE PLATFORM, "THIS IS MY SPEECH!"

Nancy and Nick and Dusty. Coat called all the Dreamland people around them.

"I wonder what's going to happen next!" whispered Wally Woodchuck to Scramble Squirrel. Scramble had only come for a week's stay, but Wally intended to stay all winter. Some people are luckier than others. Just like going on a two-week vacation and finding that everybody else can stay as long as he likes.

"Well, anyway, Nancy and Nick had an idea and called everybody to hear it.

"We're going to have school," Nancy announced.

"Oh, shucks!" said Wally to Scramble. "That isn't what I came for."

"No either," agreed Scramble, edging closer the better to hear.

"Don't look so cross everybody!" laughed Nancy. "This is a new kind of school. It's a school where everybody may talk as much as he likes and say anything he pleased. I'll be teacher and Nick will be principal. Everybody sit down, please."

So everybody sat down.

"Mr. Jack Jumping Mouse will please recite!" she went on.

Jack Jumping Mouse, now grown as large as a kangaroo since he came to Dreamland, got up. Then he looked about cautiously. "It's about Caesar the Cat I wish to speak," he whispered, "and I don't wish him to hear. His he gone yet?"

"Yes!" spoke up Dusty Coat, the fairy sandman. "He only comes and goes when he's taking short cat naps. Besides, he always changes. In Puss-a-hoots when he comes. But he never stays long."

"Then," said Jack Jumping Mouse, jumping up to the platform, "this is my speech:

"I dislike owls, also the cat. For they've both found out where I live at."

"I wish in Dreamland I could stay. For it's safer than the meadow and a stack of hay."

"That's all I know," said he with a bow.

"Fine!" cried everybody, clapping. (To Be Continued)

BEFORE BREAKFAST THE SUPREME TEST

By MARIAN HALE

Gladys Cooper is heralded as the most beautiful actress in England. I believe she is.

I saw her clad in a simple blue silk nightgown, her blond hair with its natural wave, hanging loose about her exquisitely modeled shoulders.

She was propped up in bed, for I called early in the morning.

"Have you noticed the differences in children? Some are lovely, individual, charming. Others are just plain, drab things. The drab ones could be just as beautiful as the others if someone took the pains to fix them up and cultivate them."

"I mean," she explains, "that beauty is merely the emphasizing of the distinctive things about one's self."

"To cultivate beauty, I should say, cultivate yourself and your mentality. Then progress along your own particular line. Distinction is bound to come."

All Can Excel

"I mean," she explains, "that beauty is merely the emphasizing of the distinctive things about one's self."

"To cultivate beauty, I should say, cultivate yourself and your mentality. Then progress along your own particular line. Distinction is bound to come."

GLADYS COOPER

Yet, without makeup or artifice, she was one of the most perfect things I've ever seen.

First Hours Hardest

The first hours are the hardest, as every woman knows. One who is beautiful before breakfast need not worry about the rest of the day.

Her secret? Hard work, country life, a youthful spirit!

She has played continuously in London for three years without a vacation, but she always lives in the coun-

ST. VALENTINE SALAD

2 cups white cherries (canned)

3 pintos (canned red peppers)

4 slices canned pineapple

1 grape fruit

1 cup well seasoned mayonnaise

1-2 cup cream beaten until stiff

1 head lettuce or escarole.

Remove pits from cherries, cut the pintos into small pieces, cut pineapple into dice, and remove sections from grapefruit, cutting them into shreds. Add a sprinkling of salt and thoroughly chill the fruit. When ready to serve mix with the mayonnaise and cream. Into the pastry hearts place three heart leaves of lettuce or escarole and on these place a spoonful of the fruit salad. Dust with paprika and serve.

For the pastry hearts use:

1-2 cups flour

1-2 teaspoonful salt

1 egg water

1 cup grated cheese mixed with 1-4 teaspoon salt and a few grains of cayenne

1-4 cup butter

Mix flour, salt and lard together. Moisten to a stiff dough with the egg water. Take onto a floured board, roll out, spread with the butter, sprinkle with flour, fold into three folds and chill. Roll out to one-fourth inch in thickness. Sprinkle with cheese; fold, roll out and repeat twice, using a third of the cheese each time. Again chill, then roll to one-fourth inch in thickness, and with a heart-shaped cutter, cut as many hearts as desired for individual service. With a pointed knife or another smaller cutter remove center, leaving a wall half an inch thick.

GLADYS COOPER

Three years ago, Gladys Cooper, daughter of a Pennsylvania farmer, used her voice to sing and call home. She was a member of the Philadelphia Chorus. She was a member of the Philadelphia Chorus. She was a member of the Philadelphia Chorus.

Make these in a hot oven until delicately browned, and well risen, about fifteen minutes. Cool and use as directed above.

Maintain will have no detours, even while a road is being repaired.
